By accepting the scholarship the recipient must agree to take part in marketing activities and college events (such as Open Days, Information Evenings, Workshops etc), contribute to the college's social media channels and provide testimonials as required.

Scholarships are for new, full-time students only.

Deferral or withdrawal of studies will result in forfeit of the remainder of the scholarship award (or the entire award if the studies have not yet commenced).

Should a scholarship recipient intend to transition to part-time mode at any point during their studies, the University reserves the right to discontinue the scholarship award.

The scholarship recipient is expected to excel academically, and their performance will be monitored each study period. A failure to meet academic obligations may result in forfeit of the scholarship award. Subsequent fees for repeating a failed subject will be the responsibility of the student.

Scholarship award is attributable for the course as a fee credit for the first year of study only and is non-transferable.

At the discretion of college administration, scholarships can and may be split and awarded as partial value or not awarded at all, depending on the overall quality of submissions.

Closing date for applications: 31 December 2017
